Protestant Preschool & Kindergarten Parent Code of Conduct

Protestant Preschool and Kindergarten (PPK) require the parents of enrolled children at all times to behave in a manner consistent with decency, courtesy, and respect. One of the goals of PPK is to provide the most appropriate environment in which a child can grow, learn, and develop. Achieving this ideal environment is not only the responsibility of the employees of PPK, but is the responsibility of each and every parent or adult who enters the school. Parents are required to behave in a manner that fosters this ideal environment.

Swearing/Cursing:

No parent or adult is permitted to curse or use other inappropriate language on agency property at any time. Such language is considered offensive by many people and will NOT be tolerated. At NO time shall inappropriate language be directed toward adults, children, or members of the staff.

Threats

Threats of any kind will not be tolerated. In today's society PPK cannot afford to sit by idly while threats are made. In addition, all threats will be reported to the appropriate authorities and will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. While apologies for such behavior are appreciated, the agency will not assume the risk of a second chance. PARENTS MUST BE RESPONSIBLE FOR AND IN CONTROL OF THEIR BEHAVIOR AT ALL TIMES.

Confrontation

While it is understood that parents will not always agree with the employees of PPK or the parents of the other children, it is expected that all disagreements be handled in a calm and respectful manner. Confrontational interactions are not an appropriate means by which to communicate a point and are strictly prohibited.
